

Our Tramp Around the City!

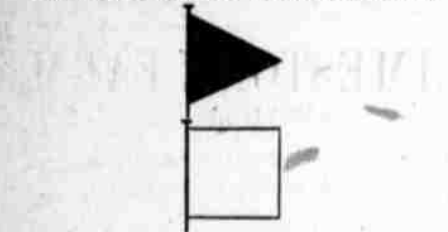

KENTUCKY WEATHER REPORT.

What We May Expect Between This Time and To-morrow Evening.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR; Blue—RAIN or SNOW; With Black ABOVE—Twill WARMER grow. If Black's BENEATH—COLDER 'twill be; Unless Black's shown—no change we'll see.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 5 o'clock to-morrow evening.

TA TA.
And now the doleful oyster
Closes up his shell.
For just a little period
In retirement to dwell.
Down by the sandy seashore
He finds he's lots to do
In cultivating progeny
To make the future stew.

Personal Points

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

H. E. Walker and family of Lewis county are visiting friends at Highlands.

Miss Anna Frazee of Mason county is visiting Miss Marian Wornald at "Lone Elm."

W. R. Brown, of Crapsey & Brown, Architects, Cincinnati, was in the city last night.

Miss Frances Shuford and Messrs. Sam Poyntz and Fred Reed of Cincinnati are visiting Miss Mae Marshall at Cottage Cliff.

Hon. Thomas McCann and Colonel John Barrett of Louisville, Delegates to the A. O. H. Convention, called on THE LEDGER this morning.

Delegate W. H. Cox and spectator Robert Ficklin of this city, and spectators Elias Collins of Flemingsburg and George W. Dye of Sardis are attending the National Republican Convention at Minneapolis.

CENTER COLLEGE, Danville, has 242 students enrolled.

BEVERLY has a curiosity in the shape of a four-legged turkey.

THERE are nineteen cases of scarlet fever and no Board of Health in Ashland.

AN enterprising daily paper says "there is no smallpox in Maysville." Well, who in thunder said there was?

EDWIN BOOTH has decided to retire from the stage for good. He will not act next season, as has been stated.

HON. RHEV BOYD of Paducah will be the orator of the big Democratic demonstration at Benton June 15th.

AN eight-year-old colored lad named Jenkins was fatally injured by being run over by a wagon at Louisville.

FRANK JONES and Miss Nannie Daulton of the Fifth Ward were married May 15th, 1892, by 'Squire Beasley of Aberdeen.

THE smallpox still prevails at Pomeroy, Middleport, Clinton and Mason City, and both steamboat and railway communications have been cut off.

ANCIENT ORDER HIBERNIANS.

The State Convention to Meet in This City at Noon To-day.

The state meeting of the Ancient Order of Hibernians will convene in this city to-day.

The delegates will assemble in the Hibernian Hall at 12 o'clock m.

The meeting is for the purpose of electing state officers and making laws for the government of the Society.

A banquet will be given by the local Society to-night at the Neptune Hall. A large number of visiting delegates are in the city, and they are, on the whole, a handsome and representative body of gentlemen. Among the number are: John J. Barrett, T. J. McCann, J. C. Garvey, Owen McCann, C. W. M. Keiran, John Ryan, Louisville; Judge M. T. Shrine, T. J. Murray, Dan Kingsley, Michael Cullen, Daniel Daly, William Moran, Covington; John Fitzgibbon, Tim McGann, Michael Costello, Mike Harris, Shelbyville; P. O. Gara, Cincinnati, at the Central.

THE House has passed the Postoffice Appropriation bill.

THE letters carriers have nothing whatever to do with mail belonging to box-holders.

JUDGE G. W. RAY, a prominent member of the Owensboro bar, died at Eureka Springs, Ark.

THE wall paper manufacturers of the country have combined, with a capitalization of $14,000,000.

JAMES R. BARRETT of Henderson bred and raised the stallion Dirigo, that sold at Cleveland for $10,500.

THE Court of Appeals has affirmed the decision in the case of Jones vs. the Commonwealth, from Bath county.

THE Covington Board of Aldermen has passed the ordinance providing for a five-cent car fare, to go into effect in thirty days.

THE St. Lawrence is booked for an excursion from Cincinnati to this city to-day, having on board the Cecelia Mannerchor.

AT Lebanon the three-year-old son of Sam McElroy fell in a well and was drowned. He had been dead an hour before he was missed.

PROF. SWIFT in a letter attempts to show that the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America falls on October 21st instead of October 12th.

THERE is a tacit agreement between the Democrats and Republicans of the House that during the Convention week no tariff legislation will be called.

THE managers of the Vanderbilt Training School will meet in Bowling Green, on June 14th, to award the contract for the buildings, which will be costly and handsome.

JOHN SHORT will go to Point Pleasant, W. Va., again on Wednesday to shoe Strong Boy the fast pacer. Mr. Short's work gives such satisfaction that the owner of the horse always sends for him.

EX-MAYOR Thomas J. Stephens of Cincinnati was buried yesterday, and John D. Banks, who was his Private Secretary during the time he was Mayor, will be laid to rest to-morrow. The death of these respected citizens almost simultaneously is somewhat strange.

THE McAlpin store on Fourth street, Cincinnati, which is having a new front of iron put in its two lower stories, was built in 1839 by John Shillito, and when it was put up it was the wonder and glory of the West. There was nothing in the country, outside of A. T. Stewart's in New York, that approached it. James McLaughlin, the architect who planned it, is now, after forty years, engaged in remodeling it.

FIVE years ago, when the citizens of Lexington voted a subscription of $150,000 to aid in the building of the Kentucky Union Railroad, that company agreed to build its car shops there. The City Council has set on foot an investigation to discover, if possible, why the shops have not been built. Should they not be erected in the near future the land donated to the road by the city will revert to the latter, and the Kentucky Union will lose property that is now valued at over $50,000.

THE health of Judge John M. Rice is so much improved that he expects to preside at the next term of the Lawrence Criminal Court.

IRONTON has taken steps to quarantine against smallpox, and will allow no shanty-boats to land outside the city limits until the disease has abated up the river.

ED THOMAS, one of Manchester's industrious young men, will wed Miss Annie McMullen of this city at her home on Lee street, Wednesday evening, June 15th, at half-past 8 o'clock. Ceremony by the Rev. J. E. Wright.

THE Chinese are ahead of the world in the preparation of roast pork for the table. After it has come out of the oven it is hung in the smoke of various aromatic herbs, which gives it a delicious flavor and robs it of the porky taste which is offensive to some palates.

JAMES WILSON, a prominent farmer of Adams county, O., was struck by lightning while standing under a tree. The bolt left the tree, took to his body and followed it to the earth, tearing his shoes into shreds. Strange to say he was only rendered unconscious for a few moments.

CITIZENS who receive their mail by carriers throughout the week must call at the "Carriers' Window" at the Postoffice between 8 and 10 o'clock Sunday morning and give their name and number thus: "Jones, 145 East Second street." This enables the carrier to quickly tell if there is any mail for Mr. Jones.

IF anybody thinks THE LEDGER's advertising rates are high, they should tackle some city papers. One of them, Saturday, charged $19 30 for six insertions of an advertisement that we print a whole year for $30. The six insertions of the city paper cover a circulation of 240,000, while ours covers a circulation of nearly 400,000.

THE remains of the late Commonwealth were sold by Master Commissioner Cole Saturday to William S. Frank, Esq., for $400.

AT Covington Colonel L. E. Casey has been elected President of the Commonwealth Publishing Company and John L. Davidson Treasurer and Secretary.

THE bill for the erection at North Bend of a monument to William Henry Harrison, the President's grandfather, has been favorably reported to the House.

AMONG the ex-Maysvillians in Augusta is W. O. Holmes, who by attention to business and gentlemanly demeanor has built up the largest trade in that beautiful city.

JACK BELL was caught in a belt at the Crystal Springs Distillery while at work and his body was literally ground to pieces before the machinery could be stopped.

JOHN BROOKS, colored, is in jail at Frankfort, charged with manslaughter. About two months ago Brooks struck his stepson, Charlie Romans, on the head with a board and Tuesday the boy died.

JOHN CARLISH went some years ago from Maysville to Augusta "without a dollar," metaphorically speaking. He now owns several brick business blocks, and talks of buying a few National banks.

SATURDAY the citizens of Ludlow voted on the proposition to issue $25,000 worth of bonds for Water-works, and the first lady voter in Kentucky was Miss Mary F. Harwood, who voted for the proposition.

THE last impression of The Democrat, Washington, D. C., contains an excellent likeness of our Congressman, Hon. Thomas H. Paynter. THE LEDGER indorses his picture but deprecates his politics.

THE letter carriers will make a few errors at first, but they will come out all right in short time. Please remember that you will make occasional mistakes yourself, and be a little patient with "the boys in gray."

THE subscription list of THE LEDGER is growing at very satisfactory rate, but we have the wish and facilities to print ten times as many papers as we do now. Can't you get us just one more name? That will double the present list.

THE army worm has appeared in Indiana, and in one section so numerous are these pests that in some instances as many as ten acres of growing hay are destroyed in a day. It is twenty-four years since these pests last appeared here.

THE statistics show that the North German Lloyd Steamship Company heads the list of passengers carried across the Atlantic for 1891, with a total of 738,068 passengers for New York, and the Hamburg-American comes next with 535,900, giving a total of 1,274,568.

THE GREATEST OFFER OF ALL

A Daily and a Weekly Newspaper for Only $3 25 a Year.

As there are many LEDGER readers who would like to have a metropolitan Weekly, we have arranged to furnish

The Daily Ledger and The Weekly New York Tribune at $3 25 a year.

This offer is for only yearly subscribers who pay in advance.

Read the announcement in another column and send in your name at once.

NEAR Pineville Frank Webb was killed and cut almost into shreds by Finley Evans.

THERE appears to be inharmonious in the School Board of Covington. Some of the members want to undo Prof. J. W. Hall, Superintendent, and supply his place with Prof. C. J. Hall, late of this city. It is claimed that the matter has a personal circumstance to render it interesting. This is that Mr. Hall of Maysville, when a candidate for Principal of the Scott Street School last year, was so marked down in the examination by Superintendent Hall that he failed to get the desired certificate and position. At any rate the Maysville man has been pitched upon as the most available candidate for Superintendent of the Covington Schools.

YOU'RE A TRIFLE WRONG.

It was General Lee who first said of Washington that he was "First in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen." General Lee was a judge of a man, a patriot and a hero, even if he did happen to be on the wrong side on one important occasion.—Ashland News.

OUR good brother is slightly in error. It was Colonel Henry Lee, father of General Robert E. Lee, who used the words quoted. They were embodied in a resolution presented to Congress on the death of Washington, and drawn up by Colonel Lee on December 19th, 1799—eight years before the Confederate General Lee was born.

Death of Mrs. Mary O'Donnell.

Mrs. Mary O'Donnell, widow of Patrick O'Donnell, died yesterday afternoon about half past one o'clock at her home on the Lexington pike, about a mile from the city. She had been ill for about two years with consumption. While her death was not unexpected, it was somewhat of a sudden nature, she seeming in her usual health and spirits until within a half hour of the end.

She was about 52 years of age and leaves seven children—two daughters and five sons. Her husband has been dead about six months.

The funeral services will take place to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock from St. Patrick's Church. She was a sister-in-law of John O'Donnell of this city.

It is now a fine to blow steam whistles in Cincinnati.

J. W. REYNOLDS, aged 65, and Evelyn Rush, aged 17, were married at Owensboro.

GRANT MORGAN shot at Washington Brown on the Customhouse steps, Covington, because the latter called him a liar.

W. M. HOPEWELL, aged 92, while eating supper at his home near Sharpsburg suddenly fell from his chair and expired almost instantly.

A STORM in Adams county, O., did great damage to growing crops. A barn belonging to George W. Smith was partially destroyed by lightning.

THE State Department has been advised that Richard Serogy, a native of Kentucky, died in Guatemala, Central America, January 26th, 1892.

R. R. GIBBONS, who was fined $200 by the Latonia judges for using abusive language to R. Richmond, failed to pay the fine and he was ruled off the turf.

A COUPLE of Cincinnatians got into a discussion of politics when one struck the other over the head with a bottle. In Kentucky they strike 'em in the mouth.

ELISHA KELLEY, aged 40, and Miss Delilah Mays, aged 16, of Lawrence county, O., were married at Cattleburg. They were accompanied by the bride's parents.

THE journeymen barbers of Cincinnati will organize a union with two-hundred charter members, one of the objects being to bind the members to a strict observance of the Sunday closing law.

REMEMBER, THE LEDGER prints "Help Wanted," "Lost," "Found," and similar notices not of a business character, free of charge. The only thing we require is that the copy be sent in before 9 o'clock on day of publication.

REPRESENTATIVE OWEN SCOTT of Illinois, who has been the champion of the printers in the House, succeeded in having an amendment added to the Postoffice bill providing that the Department shall not print the names of business firms on stamped envelopes.

THE body of Edwin Forrest will shortly be removed from its resting place in a Philadelphia churchyard to the Forrest Home. A $5,000 monument will be erected over the remains, the money to come from the sale of a portion of the property not bound up in Forrest's will.

AT Connersville, Ind., Mrs. Carlisle, daughter of ex-United States Treasurer J. N. Huston, was married to Howard M. Gordon editor of The Times. There were 200 guests present. Among the presents, amounting to several thousand dollars, was a solid silver dish, elaborately carved, from President Harrison.

GEORGE HALE, aged 30, eloped with Miss Mary Cornwell, aged 18, from Richmond to Aberdeen, O., where they were married. The parents of the girl were bitterly opposed to the match. Hale, with an iron nerve, drove up to the girl's residence under the muzzle of a shotgun in the hands of a brother and secured his prize.

THE LEDGER has received, through the courtesy of F. J. Locke, M. D., one of the Faculty, a handsomely wrought invitation to the commencement exercises of the Eclectic Medical Institute, to be held Tuesday evening at the Odeon, Cincinnati. Dr. Locke is a son-in-law of 'Squire John L. Grant of this city, and resides in Newport.

Crane, $400,000; Denman Thompson, $250,000; Joseph Murphy, $200,000; Roland Reed, $150,000; Oliver Byron, $150,000; Edwin Harrigan, $100,000; Clara Morris, $250,000; Fanny Davenport, $200,000; Lotta, $500,000; Maggie Mitchell, $250,000 and Sol Smith Russell, $400,000.

The Centennial Art Loan.

This exhibition opens this evening under the auspices of the Art Club, at the Public Library on Sutton street.

The opening addresses will be made by ex-Senator Leslie Worthington and John B. Holton.

Refreshments will be served by the Refreshment Committee.

The Public Library is now one of the most attractive places of resort in the city. It embraces the largest public collection of books, pamphlets, papers and manuscripts relating to our local history in the state of Kentucky. The rooms as arranged by the Art Club have been made additionally attractive by a variety of works of art. The series of historical portraits is one of unusual interest. The music will be attractive to all. Admission only ten cents.

A DARK HORSE.

That Is the Talk, With McKinley's Name First.

The Michigan Delegation Will Present the Name of Mr. Alger.

The Harrison Managers Still Hold the Rank and File of the Delegations Loyally to Their Leader, and Claim 350 Votes on the First Ballot.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 6.—Sunday was a day of kaleidoscope changes. The situation has been constantly shifting, constantly varying, and the wave of sentiment that swept over the assemblage in one hour would be followed by a wave of reaction the next, until in the end it was difficult indeed to sum up the total of political sentiment, to ascertain the measure of the ebb and flow, the true drift of the political feeling.

In one respect the day was a surprise, and the significance of that surprise can only be weighed by the events of the future. The Harrison leaders have rallied their forces and the demoralization of Saturday night has given place to energy, vigor and resolution Sunday night. Indeed, of the two great factions into which the republican party is divided, the administration element is as strong in leadership, political sagacity and organization as even the experienced leaders who head the opposition.

All this has been a surprise for those who have kept aloof from both factions, fully expecting that the wave of Blaine sentiment that swept over the land at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon would be irresistible in its force and that Sunday would find, gathered in its embrace, all the scattered uninstructed delegates of the republican party. But such has not been the case; indeed, to a close observer it is apparent that the Harrison forces are as strong to-day as they were twenty-four hours ago. The Blaine people say that all this is the result of organization, that the Harrison managers are holding the rank and file of the delegations loyally to their leader, but that when the decisive battle comes the Blaine enthusiasm will carry all before it, and the distinguished son of Maine be nominated on the first ballot.

The Harrison leaders laugh at these predictions of their opponents, and say that they are stronger to-day than they have ever been, and the reason of the increasing strength is that the delegates to the national convention have become weary of the temporizing of ex-Secretary Blaine and have found in his retirement to the contest at this late hour an evidence of bad faith, disloyalty and duplicity towards the president of the United States.

There will be 902 delegates in the convention that is to be called to order by Chairman Clarkson at 10 o'clock on Tuesday next. Of this number the Harrison managers officially announce Sunday night that the chief will receive the votes of 550, while the Blaine leaders, though scornful to descend to details, maintain with lofty confidence that their candidate will receive at least three-fifths of the votes of the convention, and will be nominated by acclamation.

Naturally therefore, there is a feeling of great incredulity among those who are uncommitted to either candidate. Sunday night there were rumors of dark horses, and compromise candidates. A prominent New York delegate said to-day that the dark horse feeling was growing in that delegation, and that the delegates were debating between Sherman and Allison. The name most frequently mentioned among the list of dark horses is that of William McKinley, jr., governor of Ohio. Inquiries are already being made as to his ability to receive the solid support of the Ohio delegation in case the great leaders turn to a dark horse for a candidate.

Estimates of Blaine and Harrison Strength. NEW YORK, June 6.—The Herald publishes the following estimates of the strength of Blaine and Harrison in the convention: Blaine men estimate—Blaine 553, Harrison 351. Harrison men estimate—Blaine 410, Harrison 494. Herald canvass—Blaine 451, Harrison 453. World dispatch from Minneapolis gives Blaine a majority of 43.

John Redmond Embarks for America. DUBLIN, June 6.—John Redmond, who is going to New York to deliver an address in behalf of the Parnellite party, embarked on the Etruria at Queenstown Sunday. He looks much thinner than usual, and has not yet fully recovered from his attack of rheumatic fever.

Depew Will Present Harrison's Name. MINNEAPOLIS, June 6.—Mr. Michener, of Indiana, one of the president's managers here, Sunday night confirmed the report that Depew would present the president's name to the convention. He said Mr. Chauncey M. Depew had been invited to do so, and added that Dr. Depew had accepted.

Minister Coolidge Arrives in Paris. PARIS, June 6.—Mr. T. Jefferson Coolidge, the new U. S. minister to France, arrived in this city Sunday. He was met at the railway station by the staff of the legation and a number of prominent Americans.

Another City Devastated. PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 6.—A dispatch from Oil City says the loss of life there will probably reach 300. Eminton, another oil town, between Oil City and Titusville, is also reported to have suffered greatly from the flood.

To Be Quarantined. COLUMBUS, O., June 6.—Strict quarantine regulations for the Pomeroy smallpox infected district were adopted by the state board of health at its extraordinary session Sunday.

Sidney Dillon Dying. NEW YORK, June 6.—There was a improvement in Sidney Dillon's condition Sunday evening. It was expected he would not live through the night.
